COURT OF CHANCERY, IRELAND.

COPIES OF CERTIFICATES OF COMPENSATION.

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed, 28 February 1826.

— 1. —

A Copy of the CERTIFICATE filed by The Right honourable the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, in the Office of the Auditor General in Ireland, in the matter of the Petition and Claim of Thomas Lockwood, Esq. his Lordship's Secretary, for Compensation, for one year commencing 3d November 1824 and ending 2d November 1825;—together with a Copy of the Lord Lieutenant's Warrant thereon.

IN the Matter of the Petition and Claim of Thomas Lockwood, Esq. Secretary to the Right honourable Thomas Lord Manners, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland.

IN Pursuance of an Act of the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter 61, section 60; by which it is directed that I should, on the Petition of the several Officers of the Court of Chancery and their Deputies, make inquiry into the Salary and Emoluments of such of said Officers as should, by Petition, desire that such inquiry should be made, with a view to ascertain the Average annual amount of such Salaries and Emoluments in said offices respectively, for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st of January 1823, in such manner and with such view and intent as in said Act specified; and should certify under my hand and seal the Average amount of the yearly Income of every such Officer for the said period of seven years, and that such Certificate should be filed in the office of the Auditor General, in Dublin Castle, and should remain there as a Record, and should be conclusive to all such matters and purposes of said Act; and also in pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to amend an Act of "the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, for the better administration of "Justice in the Court of Chancery in Ireland;" by which it is directed that I should ascertain, in like manner, the amount of the gross and net Income in the office of each and every of the Officers of said Court and their Deputies, who were such Officers or Deputies at the time of the passing of said Act, who should by petition desire the same, for the year commencing on the first day of Michaelmas Term 1823, including therein all and every the Salary and Emolument arising from such office for and during the said year; and if the said gross Income should be less than the average gross Income in the office of such Officer or Deputy so certified as aforesaid, then to inquire and ascertain, in like manner, whether such deficiency, or any and what part thereof, arose from said recited Act, or from any of the provisions contained therein; and in case it should appear that such deficiency, or any part thereof, did so arise, then to certify the amount of such deficiency so arising from said Act, or any of the provisions thereof; and so in every succeeding year to inquire and certify in like manner, so long as any of the said present Officers shall live and retain their said offices respectively; and that such Certificate should in like manner be filed in the said Auditor General's office, and should be conclusive as to the said matter;—

I, the Right honourable Thomas Lord Manners, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, have accordingly, on the Petition of Thomas Lockwood, Esq. Secretary to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, caused inquiry to be made into the Salary and Emoluments of said office of Secretary for the period of one year, commencing on the first day of Michaelmas Term 1824, as required by the said last recited Act, and do certify,—

That the gross Income and Emoluments of said Thomas Lockwood's said office of Secretary for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st of January 1823, after all exclusions and deductions directed by said first recited Act, amounted to the sum of 22,328*l.* 3*s.* 10*d.*, whereof the one seventh or yearly Average is 3,189*l.* 14*s.*:

That there is no Salary attached to said office; that the gross Income of said office for said period of one year commencing the 3d day of November 1824, and ending on the 2d of November 1825, amounts to the sum of 1,995*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*, as appears by the First Schedule to this my Certificate annexed:

That the disbursements thereout for said period, amount to the sum of 785*l.* 4*s.* 11*d*, the particulars whereof are set forth in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed:

That after deducting the aforesaid gross Income for said period of one year, amounting to the sum of 1,995*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*, from the aforesaid annual Average gross Income of 3,189*l.* 14*s.* the deficiency is 1,193*l.* 19*s* 6*d.*:

That the greater part of such deficiency arose from or was occasioned by said Act, and the provisions thereof:

That after excluding out of the average or annual amount all such Emoluments and Income as are directed by said Act, the gross Income the said Officer should have received for Fees upon the business done in said office in said year, would, but for the provisions of said Act, have amounted to the sum of 2,830*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.*, from which the aforesaid gross Income of 1,995*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.* received by the said Thomas Lockwood being deducted, the amount of the deficiency so arising from said Act, and the provisions thereof, is 834*l.* 19*s.* 9*d.* on the business done in said office in said period, as appears by the Third Schedule hereunto annexed:

That previous to the passing of said Act of the fourth year of His said Majesty's reign, the said Officer was entitled to and did receive a Fee of 6*s.* 8*d.* for each attendance on the passing of Minor and Lunatic Accounts, and on the Taxation of Costs in Minor and Lunatic Matters, and that said Officer's Fees, for such attendances during said period of seven years prior to the 1st of January 1823, amounted to the sum of 1,810*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* over and above the exclusions directed by said Act, whereof the one seventh or annual average is 258*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*:

That the said Officer has been by said Act restricted from the taking any Fee whatsoever, save and except such Fees as are particularly enumerated and set forth in Table No. 8, annexed to said Act:

That no Fee whatever is allowed by said Table to said Officer, on either the passing of Minor and Lunatic Accounts, or on the Taxation of Costs in such matters, and that the said sum of 258*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* has been a deficiency, arising from said Act and the provisions thereof, within said period of one year, commencing on the 3d day of November 1824, and which deficiency has been ascertained by taking the average of said Officer's receipts on said Attendances and Taxations during the aforesaid period of seven years, said Duties and the Fees payable for the performance thereof, having been altogether abolished by said Act:

That the said sums of 834*l.* 19*s.* 9*d.* and 258*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*, making together the sum of 1,093*l.* 13*s.* 1*d.*, is the deficiency arising from said Act and the provisions thereof, after all the exclusions and directions directed by said Act, as appears by the said Third Schedule to this my Certificate annexed.

Given under my hand and seal, at Dublin, this 17th day of December 1825.

Certified Copy Lord Lieutenant's Warrant, granting Compensation to Thomas Lockwood, Esq. Secretary to the Lord Chancellor.

By The Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, WELLESLEY.

WHEREAS in pursuance of an Act of the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter 61, section 60; by which it is directed that the Lord Chancellor of Ireland should, on the Petition of the several Officers of the Court of Chancery and their Deputies, make inquiry into the Salaries and Emoluments of such of said Officers as should, by Petition, desire that such inquiry should be made, with a view to ascertain the Average annual amount of such Salaries and Emoluments in said offices respectively, for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st of January 1823, in such manner and with such view and intent as in said Act specified; and should certify under his hand and seal the Average amount of the yearly Income of every such Officer for the said period of seven years, and that such Certificate should be filed in the office of the Auditor General in Dublin Castle, and should remain there as a Record, and should be conclusive to all such matters and purposes of said Act; and also in pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to amend an Act of the fourth year of His present Majesty's "reign, for the better administration of Justice in the Court of Chancery in "Ireland;" by which it is directed, that the Lord Chancellor of Ireland should ascertain, in like manner, the amount of the gross and net Income in the office of each and every of the Officers of said Court and their Deputies, who were such Officers or Deputies at the time of passing said Act, who should by petition desire the same, for the year commencing on the first day of Michaelmas Term 1823, including therein all and every the Salary and Emolument arising from such office for and during the said year; and if the said gross Income should be less than the Average gross Income in the office of such Officer or Deputy so certified as aforesaid, then to inquire and ascertain, in like manner, whether such deficiency, or any and what part thereof, arose from said recited Act, or from any of the provisions contained therein; and in case it should appear that such deficiency, or any part thereof, did so arise, then to certify the amount of such deficiency so arising from said Act, or any of the provisions thereof; and so in every succeeding year to inquire and certify in like manner, so long as any of the said present Officers shall live and retain their said offices respectively; and that such Certificate should in like manner be filed in the said Auditor General's office, and should be conclusive as to the said matter;

And whereas Thomas Lockwood, Esq. Secretary to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, having petitioned the said Lord Chancellor, and the said Lord Chancellor having accordingly, on the Petition of the said Thomas Lockwood, caused inquiry to be made into the Salary and Emoluments of said office of Secretary for the period of one year, commencing on the first day of Michaelmas Term 1824, as required by the said last recited Act, doth certify,—

That the gross Income and Emoluments of said Thomas Lockwood's said office of Secretary for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st day of January 1823, after all exclusions and deductions directed by said first recited Act, amounted to the sum of 22,328*l.* 3*s.* 10*d.* whereof the one seventh or yearly average is 3,189*l.* 14*s.*:

That there is no Salary attached to said office; that the gross Income of said office for said period of one year, commencing the 3d day of November 1824, and ending on the 2d of November 1825, amounts to the sum of 1,995*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*:

That the disbursements thereout for said period amount to the sum of 785*l.* 4*s.* 11*d.*:

That after deducting the aforesaid gross Income for said period of one year, amounting to the sum of 1,995*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*, from the aforesaid annual Average gross Income of 3,189*l.* 14*s.*, the deficiency is 1,193*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*:

That the greater part of such deficiency arose from or was occasioned by said Act, and the provisions thereof:

That

Printed image digitised by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit

That after excluding out of the average or annual amount all such Emoluments and Income as are directed by said Act, the gross Income the said Officer should have received for Fees upon the business done in said office in said year would, but for the provisions of said Act, have amounted to the sum of 2,830*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.*, from which the aforesaid gross Income of 1,995*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.* received by the said Thomas Lockwood being deducted, the amount of the deficiency so arising from said Act, and the provisions thereof, is 834*l.* 19*s.* 9*d.* on the business done in said office in said period:

That previous to the passing of the said Act of the fourth year of His said Majesty's reign, the said Officer was entitled to and did receive a Fee of 6*s.* 8*d.* for each attendance on the passing of Minor and Lunatic Accounts, and on the Taxation of Costs in Minor and Lunatic Matters, and that said Officer's Fees for such Attendances during said period of seven years prior to the 1st of January 1823, amounted to the sum of 1,810*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* over and above the exclusions directed by said Act, whereof the one seventh or annual average is 258*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*:

That the said Officer has been by said Act restricted from the taking any Fee whatsoever, save and except such Fees as are particularly enumerated and set forth in Table N° 8, annexed to said Act:

That no Fee whatsoever is allowed by said Table to said Officer, on either the passing of Minor and Lunatic Accounts, or on the Taxation of Costs in such matters, and that the said sum of 258*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* has been a deficiency, arising from said Act and the provisions thereof, within said period of one year, commencing on the 3d day of November 1824, and which deficiency has been ascertained by taking the average of said Officer's receipts on said Attendances and Taxations during the aforesaid period of seven years, said Duties, and the Fees payable for the performance thereof, having been altogether abolished by said Act:

That the said sums of 834*l.* 19*s.* 9*d.* and 258*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*, making together the sum of 1,093*l.* 13*s.* 1*d.*, is the deficiency arising from said Act, and the provisions thereof, after all the exclusions and deductions directed by said Act:

£. 1,009. 10*s.* 6*d.* Compensation to Secretary to the Lord Chancellor for one year, from the 3d November 1824 to 2d November 1825.

These are therefore to authorize and require you to cause to be issued out of the receipt of the Exchequer of Ireland to Thomas Lockwood, Esq. Secretary to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, the sum of 1,009*l.* 10*s.* 6*d.* (being a sum of 1,093*l.* 13*s.* 1*d.* of Irish currency,) being in full compensation for the deficiency arising from the said Act, and the provisions thereof, for one year, from the 3d day of November 1824 to the 2d day of November 1825, which sum you are to charge to account of payments made in pursuance of said Act; and for so doing this shall be your Warrant.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 31st day of January 1826.

A Copy of the CERTIFICATE filed by the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor of Ireland in the Office of the Auditor General in Ireland, in the Matter of the Petition and Claim of William Edward Porter, Gentleman, Clerk of the Recognizances in the Court of Chancery in Ireland, for Compensation, for one year commencing 3d November 1824, and ending 2d November 1825;—together with a Copy of the Lord Lieutenant's Warrant thereon.

IN the Matter of William Edward Porter, Gentleman, Clerk of the Recognizances of His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland.

IN Obedience of an Act of the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter 61; by which it is directed that I should, on the Petition of the several Officers of the Court of Chancery and their Deputies, make inquiry into the Salary and Emoluments of such of said Officers who should by Petition desire that such inquiry should be made, with a view to ascertain the Average annual amount of such Salaries and Emoluments in said Offices respectively, for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st of January 1823, in such manner and with such view and intent as in said Act specified; and should certify under my hand and seal the Average amount of the yearly income of every such Officer for the said period of seven years, and that such Certificate should be filed in the office of the Auditor General, in Dublin Castle, and should remain there as a Record, and should be conclusive as to all such matters, and the purposes of said Act; and also in pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to amend an Act of the fourth "year of His present Majesty's reign, for the better administration of justice in "the Court of Chancery in Ireland;" by which it is directed that I should ascertain, in like manner, the amount of the gross and net Income in the office of each and every of the Officers of said Court and their Deputies, who were such Officers or Deputies at the time of passing of said Act, who shall by petition desire the same, for the year commencing the first day of Michaelmas Term 1823, including therein all and every Salary and Emoluments arising from said office for and during the said year; and if the said gross Income should be less than the Average gross Income in the office of such Officer or Deputy so certified as aforesaid, then to inquire and ascertain, in like manner, whether such deficiency, or any and what part thereof, arose from said recited Act, or from any of the provisions contained therein; and in case it should appear that such deficiency, or any part thereof, did so arise, then to certify the amount of such deficiency so arising from said Act, or any of the provisions thereof; and that such certificate should in like manner be filed in the said Auditor General's office, and should be conclusive as to the said matter;—

I, the Right honourable Thomas Lord Manners, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, have accordingly, on the Petition of William Edward Porter, Gentleman, Clerk of the Recognizances of the said Court of Chancery in Ireland, caused inquiry to be made into the Salary and Emoluments of said office of Clerk of the Recognizances, to the period of one year, required by said last recited Act, and do certify,—

That the gross Income and Emoluments of said William Edward Porter's said office of Clerk of the Recognizances for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st day of January 1823, after all exclusions and deductions, directed by said first recited Act, amounted to the sum of 4,632*l.* 15*s.* 5*d.* whereof the one seventh or yearly average is 661*l.* 16*s.* 4¾*d.*:

That there is no Salary attached to said office, and that the gross receipt of said office in said year, commencing the 3d of November 1824, and ending the 2d of November 1825, amounts to the sum of 616*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.* as appears by the First Schedule to this my Certificate annexed:

That

Printed image digitised by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit

That the disbursements out of said gross Income amount to the sum of 163*l.* 11*s.* 7*d.* as appears by the Second Schedule hereunto annexed:

That after deducting said last-mentioned sum of 163*l.* 11*s.* 7*d.* from said sum of 616*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.* the net Income in said office in said year amounts to the sum of 452*l.* 17*s.* 1*d.*

That after deducting the aforesaid gross Income of said office for one year, commencing on the 3d November 1824 and ending the 2d November 1825, amounting to 618*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.* from the aforesaid Average gross annual Income for said period of seven years, amounting to the sum of 661*l.* 16*s.* 5¾*d.* the deficiency amounts to the sum of 45*l.* 7*s.* 9¾*d.*:

That the whole of such deficiency arose from or was occasioned by the said Act and the provisions thereof:

That after excluding out of the said average or annual amount of such Emoluments and income as are directed by said Act, the gross Income the said Officer should have received for Fees upon the business done in said office for said year would, but for the provisions of said Act, have amounted to the sum of 920*l.* 19*s.* 11*d.*

That the aforesaid gross Income 616*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.*, being deducted from the aforesaid Average gross annual Income for said period of seven years, amounting to the sum of 661*l.* 15*s.* 5¾*d.*; that the amount of the deficiency so arising from the said Act, and the provisions thereof, is 45*l.* 7*s.* 9¾*d.* on the business done in said year, after all the exclusions and deductions directed by said Act.

Given under my hand and seal, at Dublin, this 17th day of December 1825.

Certified Copy Lord Lieutenant's Warrant, granting Compensation to William Edward Porter, Clerk of the Recognizances, Court of Chancery, Ireland.

By the Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.
WELLESLEY.

IN Pursuance of an Act of the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter 61; by which it is directed that the Lord Chancellor of Ireland should, on the petition of the several Officers of the Court of Chancery and their Deputies, make inquiry into the Salary and Emoluments of such of said Officers who should, by Petition, desire that such inquiry should be made, with a view to ascertain the annual Average amount of such Salaries and Emoluments in said offices respectively, for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st of January 1823, in such manner and with such view and intent as in said Act specified, and should certify under his hand and seal the Average amount of the yearly Income of every such Officer, for the said period of seven years; and that such Certificate should be filed in the office of the Auditor General in Dublin Castle, and should remain there as a Record, and should be conclusive as to all such matters and the purposes of said Act; and also in pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to "amend an Act of the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, for the better "administration of Justice in the Court of Chancery in Ireland;" by which it is directed that the Lord Chancellor of Ireland should ascertain, in like manner, the amount of the gross and net Income in the office of each and every of the Officers of said Court and their Deputies, who were such Officers or Deputies at the time of passing said Act, who shall by Petition desire the same, for the year commencing the first day of Michaelmas Term 1823, including therein all and every Salary and Emoluments arising from said office for and during the said year; and if the said gross Income should be less than the average gross Income in the office of such Officer or Deputy so certified as aforesaid, then to inquire and ascertain, in like manner, whether such deficiency, or any and what part thereof, arose from said recited Act, or from any of the provisions contained therein; and in case it should appear that such deficiency, or any part thereof, did so arise, then to certify the amount of such deficiency so arising from said Act, or any of the provisions thereof; and that such Certificate should in like manner be filed in the said Auditor General's office, and should be conclusive as to the said matter;—

And whereas William Edward Porter, Gentleman, Clerk of the Recognizances of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, having petitioned the Lord Chancellor, and the said Lord Chancellor having accordingly, on the Petition of the said William Edward Porter, caused inquiry to be made into the Salary and Emoluments of said office of Clerk of the Recognizances, for the period of one year, required by said last recited Act, doth certify,—That the gross Income and Emoluments of the said William Edward Porter's said office of Clerk of the Recognizances, for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st day of January 1823, after all exclusions and deductions, as directed by said first recited Act, amounted to the sum of 4,632*l.* 15*s.* 5*d.*, whereof the one-seventh or yearly average is 661*l.* 16*s.* 5¾*d.*

That there is no Salary attached to said office, and that the gross receipt of said office, in said year commencing the 3d of November 1824 and ending the 2d of November 1825, amounts to the sum of 616*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.*; that the disbursements out of said gross Income amount to the sum of 163*l.* 11*s.* 7*d.*; that after deducting the last-mentioned sum of 163*l.* 11*s.* 7*d.* from said sum of 616*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.*, the net Income in said office, in said year, amounts to the sum of 452*l.* 17*s.* 1*d.*:

That after deducting the aforesaid gross Income of said office for one year, commencing on the 3d November 1824 and ending the 2d November 1825, amounting to 618*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.*, from the aforesaid Average gross annual Income for said period of seven years, amounting to the sum of 661*l.* 16*s.* 5¾*d.*, the deficiency amounts to the sum of 45*l.* 7*s.* 9¾*d.*

That the whole of such deficiency arose from or was occasioned by the said Act, and the provisions thereof:

That

That after excluding out of the said average or annual amount of such Emoluments and Income as are directed by said Act, the gross Income the said officer should have received for Fees upon the business done in said office, for said year, would, but for the provisions of said Act, have amounted to the sum of 920*l.* 19*s.* 11*d.*:

That the aforesaid gross Income of 616*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.* being deducted from the aforesaid Average gross annual Income, for said period of seven years, amounting to the sum of 661*l.* 15*s.* 5¾*d.*; that the amount of the deficiency so arising from the said Act, and the provisions thereof, is 45*l.* 7*s.* 9¼*d.*, on the business done in said year, after all the exclusions and deductions directed by said Act.

These are therefore to authorize and require you to cause to be issued out of the receipt of the Exchequer of Ireland, to William Edward Porter, Gentleman, Clerk of the Recognizances of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, the sum of 41*l.* 18*s.* (being a sum of 45*l.* 7*s.* 9¾*d.* of Irish currency) in full compensation for such deficiency, for one year commencing on the 3d November 1824 and ending on the 2d November 1825, in manner and under the provisions and restrictions in the said recited Act; which sum you are to charge to account of payments made in pursuance of said Act; and for so doing this shall be your Warrant.

£. 41. 18*s.* Deficiency of Compensation to Mr. William Edward Porter, for year to 2d November 1825.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 31st day of January 1826.

Hy His Excellency's command,

(signed) Henry Goulburn.

To His Majesty's Vice Treasurer of Ireland, or his Deputy.
